Fritz, 14, and Bill Fischer, 12, grandsons of Mrs. Charles W. Varney, 4728 Saratoga Ave., blew into Tijuana Saturday aboard an airliner from Lima, Peru.

They reported an uneventful flight . . . Their father (Dr. Alfred George Fischer) and mother (the former Winnie Varney) will return to the States later. He is scheduled to teach at Princeton next fall.

* * *

The dinner at Bali Hai last Thursday night honoring Robert D. Williams on the eve of his retirement as vice-principal at PLHS, produced a virtual stampede of alumni, old friends and associates.

They were in a festive mood and obviously enjoyed the "This Is Your Life" program presented by means of slides flashed on a screen . . . Mrs. Virginia Fowler, Point Loma homemaking teacher, was chairman, and her husband, Emmett, acted as MC.

Mrs. Margaret Christianson, Point Loma English teacher, wrote a poem for the occasion; it was a fine tribute to Bob Williams and his career in youth guidance.

Some of those present were Dr. Elliott Colby, Frank Beck, "Bud" Kearns, John Aseltine, L. L. Bloomenshine, Athos Sada, Curtis Imlay, Don Giddings, Dr. Eugene Stephenson (he's leaving for Europe this week), Paul Wolcott, Bill Gauss and Dave Chandler.

* * *

Selection of Don Giddings as Point Loma's new vice-principal is good news to the hundreds of Peninsula residents who know him.

As a football coach, teacher and counselor he did a swell job at PLHS during 1946-55 . . . I can't think of a better man to succeed Williams—and the teachers feel that way too.

* * *

Speaking of teachers, Point Loma has some of the best. If you asked members of the 1956 graduating class to name their top choice, one of the leaders certainly would be Frank Thornton, who teaches Journalism, Citizenship and History.

He helped make history as a paratrooper in the ETO during World War II. He lost a leg in action, and when he talks about the duties and responsibilities of American citizenship he's not just whistling Dixie.

* * *

There's another teacher at Point Loma to whom History is more than a word—George Worthington.

He suffered cruel injuries aboard a carrier in the Pacific during WW II; he came through the ordeal with all flags flying and, like Frank Thornton, undoubtedly is a better teacher for it.

Both those guys have a sympathetic understanding of young people . . . Point Loma is lucky to have them.

Incidentally, the staff of El Portal, the 1956 Annual, made this statement:

". . . most of all we wish to thank our advisor Mr. Worthington, for without his guidance, patience and encouragement we never could have produced this annual."

The '56 El Portal is a beautiful book, with excellent photography throughout.

It's something to be proud of.

LITTLE LEAGUE

De Falco won its fifth and sixth games of the first half, defeating Kiwanis Monday, June 4, 5 to 3 and beating Rotary 3 to 1 Wednesday.

It was 3 homers for De Falco Monday, hit by Tom Gable, David Rebelo, and Mike Sneed. Gary Rucker was winning pitcher with John Wenz behind the plate. Kiwanis runs were scored by Bruce Kehrli, Kent Zender and Clyde Campbell. Other hitters were Dennis Wilson and Don Coley.

Tom Gable's 3 run homer for De Falco in the third defeated Rotary Wednesday. Wenz, Sneed, and Livolsi also were hitters. John Wenz allowed Rotary only 3 scattered hits by Tom Bailey, Don Sweek and Dave Lauren.

Friday, Rotary defeated Kiwanis 8 to 4 with a 7 run rally in the second, featuring hits by Bailey, Lauren, Weyer, and Bobby Knowlton. Lauren also homered in the fourth. Kiwanis hits were by Coley, Campbell, Zender, MacLachlan, Wilson and Burkholder. Bailey was winning pitcher.

It was Optimist 6, De Falco 4 in seven innings, in an outstanding game. Tom Gable's 4th home run scoring Wenz looked commanding until Mike Sherwin's 3 run double in the 5th for Optimist. Perrura's hit in the seventh was the winning blow, scoring John Starwalt and Sherwin.

Glen Holmes, Ahren, Conklin, and Clyde Robinson also hit for Optimist. Wenz and Gable got 3 hits each for De Falco; Rucker, Sneed and Steve Carr also hit. Winning pitcher was George Kelly who relieved Ahren in the seventh.

Deep Sea Anglers Set New Records

Taking advantage of what appears to be a very temporary breathing spell, deep sea anglers today looked back on the hottest week of fishing in the 10-year history of the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby and prepared to wade back in for more.

A flock of new records were written into the books to mark the calendar week which ended Saturday night as the greatest. Total catch of yellows for the seven-day period rose to 6076, completely overshadowing the previous high of 5238 set in May last year.

At the same time, the single day catch of 1916 yellows chalked up last Thursday topped the former high of 1500 bagged April 24, 1955, and also eclipsed the record catch of 1602 albacore made Aug. 10, 1955.

STOP ME

The young Point Loma husband took pride in remembering to do "the little things" for his wife. For example, he told me, he gives her money once a month specifically for a new dress.

One evening he dashed home, told his wife to get dressed, they had a last-minute dinner appointment.

"I haven't a thing to wear," she said.

What about the new dress you bought this month?"

"I've already worn it," she wailed.
